Protecting your personal data

The University Library of Széchenyi István University pays particular attention to the protection of the personal data of library users. The library would like to ensure library user information self-determination rights in all circumstances.

The Széchenyi István University Library protects user personal data according to the following laws and regulations: law of 2011. CXII. information self-determination and freedom of information, regulation of the European Parliament and the Council (2016/679): the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and the free flow of such data. / Regulation of a 95/46/EK has been inoperative/. The Library of Széchenyi István University respects the protection of personal data and handles it taking into account applicable laws at all times.

Should you transfer any of your personal information to the University Library, you consent to it being registered and managed by the University Library. (the nature of the transaction is defined by purpose and time).

The university library uses your personal data only for the intended purpose, it never merges the data with databases which come from other sources. The library never passes data to a third party and makes every reasonable effort to protect such data.

Please note that you can reach other company and organisation websites from the University Library webpage. The University Library is not responsible for the published data, content and correctness of such websites.

If you use these websites, we recommend you make sure that the privacy policy of the organisation guarantees your security. If you wish to receive information regarding your personal data or you wish to correct, delete or block it, please contact the University Library at konyvtar@sze.hu or in person at the University Library.